CREDIT AND HOUR

All BFSU ISS courses adhere to the credit hour system. 32 credit hours are assigned to each 2-credit course, including teaching and exams.

COURSE SCHEDULE

2021 BFSU ISS instructors can choose from the following three types of class arrangements depending on the duration of the course. 32 credit hours are assigned to each 2-credit course, and shall be all finished within the duration of each course schedule. All courses will be scheduled in Beijing Time (GMT+8).

TYPE	DURATION OF THE COURSE
A1	JULY 5 - 16
A2	JULY 19 - 30
B	JULY 5 - 30

FINAL ASSESSMENT

Final assessment is required for each course, in the form of a test or a paper. Exam items should not be all multiple choice questions, or true or false questions. We strongly recommend the use of definitions and essay questions.

For research papers, the length of the paper is between 1,500 and 2,500 words. You can also have formative assessment, including students' attendance that accounts for no more than 10%, class participation, or a final exam/paper.

BENEFITS
